

Music Line Up for July 21, 2007

Street Music was formed in the Collingwood area in 1999 with some of the best musicians in the Golden Triangle. This six piece rock band is easy on the eyes with the charismatic stage presence of Chantale Dubois and Sasha Law upfront. Chantale is often seen by audiences of several thousand in the ABBA Mania band. The four piece instrumentalist are a trip all on their own with John Marshall on lead guitar, formerly with Ronnie Hawkins.

Jonn Ord on keyboards has played with Chuck Berry and Janis Joplin. Steve Scott, known as the 5th Beatle, is on bass from Wasaga Beach and Paul Pallister is on drums. Paul is from Meaford but currently resides in Hawaii where he moved with his wife and his Harley Davidson. He flies home every summer, partially to play with Street Music. The band plays a wide range of music from rock to blues and has a sound you won't forget.
